www.ewhaian.org

The Ewha Womans University Alumnae Association of North America (EWUAANA) is in seeking talented students who may be in need of financial support for the academic year, 2021-2022.

Applications are invited from Ewha Womans University undergraduates, graduates or children of Ewha Alumnae in North America who expect to attend an accredited institution of higher education in North America during the grant year, and/or recent Ewha graduates who are doing research or pursuing other scholarly or artistic projects in North America.

Additionally, a scholarship for Korean-born students who have been adopted by parents residing in North America will be available as long as the funding lasts. This scholarship was established in the memory of Dr. C.D. Kwon by his family.

Applicants must be able to submit evidence of: (1) good academic or artistic achievement and promise; (2) financial need; and (3) sound character and commitment to science and/or the arts, including liberal arts.

Applications must adhere closely to the following rules.

1. Applications must be typed, completed, and emailed to hshorack@san.rr.com by October 31, 2021. Incomplete applications will be disqualified.
2. Submit all required documents described on page 7 of the application.
3. If you require additional space to complete any section, please add space.
4. No applications will be returned to the applicant. EWUAANA reserves the right to publish or reprint any essays submitted as part of an application.
5. Letters of recommendation and artwork CD (if applicable) must be submitted to the address on page 7, and postmarked no later than October 31, 2021.

Applicants will be notified of the status of their application via email or phone call by November 30, 2021.

If you have any questions about eligibility or the application process, please send an email to Heather Shorack at hshorack@san.rr.com

1. An essay, typed and double-spaced, which explains your motivation to seek the degree or complete the project for which you are requesting assistance. Your essay should also elaborate on the personal attributes which you feel qualify you for this degree or to complete the project, your need for financial aid and your efforts to assist yourself.
2. Two letters of recommendation, from someone other than a relative, commenting on your character and standing in the community. The letters of recommendation should be completed on letterhead, signed and mailed directly to us from the author. We will disqualify letters that are sent to us from the applicant. Letters from professors who have had students in their classes are preferred.
3. An official copy of your most recent school transcript. New graduate students should submit a copy of their final undergraduate transcript. New college students should submit a copy of their high school transcript.
4. Written confirmation from the college or graduate school that you will be attending, stating that you are in good standing and eligible to be enrolled for work toward the degree you are pursuing.
5. Curriculum vitae (max. 2 pages)
6. Additional requirements for music, arts, design or film students; please send the following:
  - * USB drive or CD with a selection of your artwork, film, or music, with a list including titles, dimensions, medium, etc. (as applicable)

Please read and sign the statement below:

I certify that the information included in this application, as well as any other material which I may submit in support of my request for assistance, is true to the best of my knowledge. I intend that this information will be used in the consideration of my request. Further, I understand that any submission of false information can be the basis for cancellation of a grant already made, and the requirement that I repay any grant already received.
